The Artist Teacher Associates Summer Residency was a great success!

The delegates created some amazing creative works during the weekend. Thanks to Curious Minds for their support and generous funding for this event. Through Ellie Barrett's inspirational workshops and guidance the Artist Teacher Associates were able to explore new ways of working, meet new people and curate a temporary exhibition of the work they produced. Hosted superbly by Fiona Sinclair and Caroline MacLennan we received a warm welcome to the University of Lancaster with access to their excellent resources at the Peter Scott Gallery (LICA).

Ellie Barrett will be visiting the ATA regional meetings across the year. Please see the information below for what's on in your area. We look forward to seeing you at the next meeting!

Remember to book your place with the regional ATA co-ordinator (details below). Don't forget to tell your friends and colleagues. Everyone is welcome to join here!

Kind regards,

Sandra & Patricia

5-7pm Friday 25th September 2015 (Peter Scott Gallery):

A talk by contemporary Artist Jen Southern whose individual practice is process based and participatory, exploring art practice as a social process. From learning to fly a light aircraft to making videogame clothing the work is experimental and plays with the idea of what it might mean to inhabit media. In collaboration with other artists, technologists or members of the public she works with hybrid places as lived environments.
