The screenshot shows the Lancaster Arts website with a dark theme. At the top left is the Lancaster Arts logo (three vertical bars). To its right is a search bar with the text "Search the Lancaster Arts site...." and a magnifying glass icon. Further right is the box office number "01524 594151" and two buttons: "Book Tickets" and "Join Our Mailing List". Below this is a navigation menu with links for "Events", "Visiting", "Comment", "Collections", "Projects" (which is highlighted), and "About".

The main content area has a breadcrumb trail: "Welcome to Lancaster Arts / Projects / Artist Teacher Associates - Lead Artist/ Curator Open Call". The title "Artist Teacher Associates - Lead Artist/ Curator Open Call" is prominently displayed in white. To the left of the main text is an orange box with the text "artistteacher associates" and "ATSS Curator Call Out" below it.

The main text reads: "Artist Teacher Associates and Curious Minds are seeking to appoint a Lead Artist/Curator to plan an Artist Teacher Summer School and Programme between July 2015 – April 2016. The successful candidate will devise a series of project briefs for artists who work in education, engage with current practice and wish to develop their own artwork. They will be expected to bring creative and imaginative approaches that will stimulate and challenge these Artist Teachers to question and evolve new ideas for art work. The Lead Artist/Curator will be expected to bring creative and imaginative approaches that will stimulate and challenge these Artist Teachers to question and evolve new ideas for art work. The ideal person must have:"

- good communication skills
