Sole-Zine continues to document the voices from the Nike Air Max 95 community. To mark one year from the 30th anniversary of this iconic shoe, we return with part 02 'The city lives in Air Max'.

In collaboration with The Block P and their homegrown community we were able to capture and celebrate what this silhouette means to them and how unparalleled this obsession, style and place live on.

Sole-Zine is a poster-magazine dedicated to documenting British trainer culture. 110 Voices part 02 is a participatory research project presented by Sole-Zine x The Block P. '110's' is the term given by the sneaker community to the Nike Air Max 95 shoe.
