THE LOWRY LOUNGE

Friday 29 October 7.30-10pm Free

Following the Bluecoat's centenary celebration of Merseyside born writer Malcolm Lowry last year, the 'voyage that never ends' continues with an evening of talks, discussions, films and sounds. For fans of the author of Under the Volcano, there will be fascinating perspectives from The Firminists on Lowry's use of music in his writing and mapping his Liverpool; showing of a rare documentary film; the launch of a new Lowry periodical; readings from creative writing responses to Lowry; a volcanic Lowry-themed disco, and finishing with a toast to the writer.
